CELEBRATING BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

Did you know....that a African American nun, made history in June of 1989, as the first African American woman to address the full body of the U.S. Bishop's conference? Sr. Thea Bowman (1937 - 1990) was a Franciscan Sister of Perpetual Adoration who dedicated her life to working for the African American Catholic community. She was instrumental in the creation of many Catholic multicultural and African American projects such as the first edition of Lead Me, Guide Me, an African American Catholic hymnal, and co-founded the Institute for Black Catholic Studies at Xavier University in Louisiana. Sr. Thea's life mission was to share her rich cultural heritage and spirituality through song,

Give the gift of music this holiday season. Our music ministry's latest CD "Oh Jesus" it is currently available for $15.00. To purchase a copy of this great project see John Thorne or any choir member. Purchases can be made by cash, check or charge.
