CELEBRATING BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

Did you know....that black priest has written what many believe is the definitive history of black Catholics in the United States? Fr. Cyprian Davis, a Benedictine priest and professor was the single most important leader in historical studies of the African-American Catholic Church. Fr. Davis recovered a story that was largely hidden from public view. His lifelong commitment to recording the African American riches that have been lost . His work has been sheer grace for our Catholic community.
