Fr. Norman P. Thomas, Pastor

Education is a treasure that we seek with the help of family, educators and the church community. Collectively we can be productive, creative and intellectually active. Each of us will dedicate ourselves to strive for excellence in education and excellence in life.

☐

As a STUDENT

I will:

- Choose friends who do not hold me back from learning.
- Not participate in or encourage bullying.
- Make school work important to me.
- Choose not to mess with drugs.
- Be responsible to my family, friends and my community.
- Be the most important person in my education.
- Share my academic progress with my church each card marking.
- Continuously upgrade my technology skills.

- Take an active role in encouraging the selection of companions who influence positive learning.
- Demand self-sacrifice, self-discipline and responsibility to our family and community.
- Be prepared to do anything to oppose anyone who stands between our children and a good education.

☐

As a SACRED HEART EDUCATOR

I will

- Commit to strive for social and educational changes that will affect the way I teach.
- Continue the love for learning, social discipline, and social responsibility for our students
- Make our schools/classrooms a place where students can learn in a safe environment.
- Demand that students do their best.

☐

As a FAMILY/ADULT

I will:

- Encourage our children to strive for excellence in learning.
- Seek resources for emotional and behavioral success.
- Renew our high ideal of love, respect, truth, endurance and pride in our heritage.
- Model the way.
- Stimulate a love for learning by promoting cultural, social and historical events.
